Date : 3.2.2006.

PC

1. Heard both sides. Rule. By consent, rule made returnable forthwith.

2. This is a petition impugning an order passed by respondent no.2 on 26.9.2005 rejecting the application dated 16.5.2005 for grant of furlough leave for a period of 2 weeks. It is seen from the order that the only reason why furlough has been refused is that inspite of notice, the surety did not come forward to confirm that he was ready to stand surety. Advocate for the petitioner states that one of his close relative who is brother-in-law of the petitioner by name Gopichand B.Pisal is willing to stand surety for an amount of Rs.5000/- to secure his return. In the circumstances, it is directed that in case the brother-in-law of the petitioner Shri Gopichand B.Pisal gives surety in the sum of Rs.5000/- to the satisfaction of respondent no.2 within a period of 2 weeks from the date of receipt of this order, the petitioner will be released on furlough for a period of 2 weeks from the date of his actual release. APP states that he will forthwith communicate this order to respondent no.2. Rule is made absolute in the above terms and the petition stands finally disposed of.

. Parties to act on an ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Private Secretary of this Court as a true copy.
